EXHIBIT B

November 11, 2016

As you may be aware, Progressive Acute Care, LLC, Progressive Acute Care Avoyelles, LLC, Progressive Acute Care Oakdale, LLC and Progressive Acute Care Winn, LLC (collectively, “Debtors”) each filed a chapter 11 bankruptcy case on May 31, 2016. You are receiving this letter because you may have an administrative claim entitled to priority treatment in one or more of the Debtors’ bankruptcy cases.

You should have received a prior formal notice of the administrative claims bar date and this letter is intended as a reminder of that deadline and its importance. If you have a claim against any of the Debtors for (a) unpaid services provided on or after May 31, 2016, or (b) unpaid goods received by the Debtor within 20 days before May 31, 2016, you must file one of the enclosed Administrative Claim forms with the Bankruptcy Court prior to 4:00 p.m. on December 5, 2016 to receive payment. Only Administrative Claims (as described above) filed by this deadline will be paid.

There are two (2) Administrative Claim Forms enclosed:

- (1) If you have a claim for unpaid goods or services provided on or after May 31, 2016, you must file the enclosed form marked:

ADMINISTRATIVE PROOF OF CLAIM

- (2) If you have a claim for unpaid goods received by the Debtor within 20 days before May 31, 2016, you must timely file the enclosed form marked:

503(b)(9) ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE CLAIM

Failure to timely file an Administrative Claim Form will result in your claim being forever barred from being asserted against the Debtors, their assets or their bankruptcy estates.

All timely filed and validated claims will be paid after the December 5, 2016 deadline has passed. If you would like to review additional information regarding the Debtors’ bankruptcy cases, please visit the website: <http://cases.gcginc.com/ProgressiveAcuteCare>. Additional claim forms for Administrative Claims and claims other than those described in this letter can be downloaded from this website.

Sincerely,

DocuSigned by:

Administrative Expense Claim.

An administrative expense claim is any claim asserting priority pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 503 and 507(a)(2), including but not limited to (i) claims for goods and services provided to the debtors on or after the May 31, 2016 petition date otherwise unpaid and (ii) claims for the value of goods received by the debtors within 20 days before the petition date and meeting the other requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(9) and which claim is otherwise unpaid.

Claim.

A claim is the creditor’s right to receive payment for a debt owed by the debtor as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(5).

Creditor.

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity to whom the debtor owes a debt.

Debtor.

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Proof of Claim.

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor. The creditor must file the form with the claims agent retained in this case as provided below.

Redacted.

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted certain information. A creditor must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual’s tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor’s name, and only the year of any person’s date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of healthcare goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential healthcare information.

General instructions and filing instructions.

1. Please read this proof of claim form carefully and fill it in completely and accurately.
2. Print legibly. Your claim may be disallowed if it cannot be read or understood.
3. The proof of claim form must be completed in English. The amount of the claim must be denominated in United States currency.
4. Attach additional pages if more space is required to complete the proof of claim.
5. This form should only be used by claimants asserting administrative expense claims that are not 503(b)(9) claims. 503(b)(9) claims must be asserted on a separate form.
6. To be deemed properly filed, this proof of claim must contain an original signature and must be filed so as to be ACTUALLY RECEIVED on or before DECEMBER 5, 2016 AT 4:00 P.M. Items to be completed in proof of claim form.

Creditor's name and address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

Debtor's name:

Check the box next to the debtor from whom the debt is owed. If debts are owed by both debtors, submit a separate proof of claim for each debtor.

Account or other number by which creditor identifies debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

1. Basis for claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, and personal injury/wrongful death. If the claim is based on delivering healthcare goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential healthcare information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

2. Date debt was incurred:

State the date or dates on which the debt was incurred.

3. If court judgment, date obtained:

State the date on which any court judgment on which the claim is based was obtained.

4. Total amount of claim as of the date the debt was incurred:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date or dates on which the debt was incurred. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

5. Brief description of claim (attach any additional information):

Briefly describe the nature of the claim and attach any additional relevant information.

6. Credits, setoffs, and counterclaims:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt. If claim is subject to setoff or counterclaim, check box and provide an explanation.

7. Assignment:

Check box and include copy of assignment if claimant obtained claim by way of assignment.

8. Supporting documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If claim is based on delivering healthcare goods or services, limit disclosing embarrassing or confidential healthcare information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning. If the documents are not available, provide explanation. If the documents are voluminous, attach a summary.

9. Date-stamped copy:

If the claimant wishes to receive an acknowledgement of the filing of the claim, submit a copy of the proof of claim in a self-addressed, stamped return envelope along with the original claim

10. Date and signature:

The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). If your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for the purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.
