II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This Court has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(1) and 28 U.S.C. § 1334 because this is a proceeding relating to Case No. 12-11076, styled In re Arcapita Bank B.S.C.(c), et al., pending in this district under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. This proceeding constitutes a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b)(2)(A), (B), and (O). Tide consents entry of a final order or judgment by the Bankruptcy Court if it is determined that the Bankruptcy Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgment consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409(a) because the chapter 11 cases this proceeding arises in are pending in this district.

III. BACKGROUND FACTS

7. Prior to the Petition Date (defined below), Tide, Falcon, and Arcapita, engaged in discussions regarding Tide's purchase of the equity in Falcon's subsidiary, NorTex Gas Storage Company, LLC ("NorTex") a natural gas storage business. Tide and Falcon entered into a purchase agreement ("Purchase Agreement") in March 2010, whereby Tide agreed to purchase all of the equity in NorTex.

8. At the time the Purchase Agreement was executed, the Hopper Claimants (or their successors in interest) were minority shareholders in Falcon.

9. Subsequent to the execution of the Purchase Agreement between Tide and Falcon, but prior to the closing date, the Hopper Claimants, as minority shareholders, filed two lawsuits in Texas seeking to enjoin the NorTex sale and alleging, among other things, a claim for shareholder oppression based on the allegation that the Hopper Claimants were damaged by Falcon selling the NorTex equity to Tide at a below market price ("Texas Lawsuits"). Tide and Falcon agreed to put $70 million of the purchase price in escrow and move forward to consummate the sale of NorTex equity.

10. On April 1, 2010, the sale of the NorTex equity closed and Tide paid Falcon $445 million for the purchase of NorTex. Tide also deposited $70 million into escrow with HSBC Bank USA, National Association, pursuant to a First Amendment to the Purchase Agreement dated April 1, 2010 and an Escrow Agreement ("Escrow Account").

11. In July 2010, the Hopper Claimants entered into a Settlement Agreement with Falcon, Arcapita and others ("Hopper Settlement", attached hereto as Exhibit A) in order to settle the claims for damages arising from the sale of equity in NorTex, as alleged in the Texas Lawsuits. Under the Settlement Agreement, the Hopper Claimants agreed to dismiss the Texas Lawsuits with prejudice. The Hopper Claimants also agreed to abandon, forfeit, transfer and cancel all of their stock in Falcon. In exchange for these and other agreements, Falcon and its affiliate agreed to deliver to the Hopper Claimants $14.75 million, $6.5 million of which was paid immediately, and $8.25 million was to be paid out of the Escrow Account.

12. Before execution of the Settlement Agreement, the Hopper Claimants were minority shareholders in Falcon. After execution of the Settlement Agreement, the Hopper Claimants ceased to be shareholders in Falcon, and Arcapita's affiliate became the sole shareholder in Falcon.

13. Arcapita filed for chapter 11 protection on March 19, 2012. Falcon filed for chapter 11 protection on April 30, 2012 ("Petition Date").

14. Each of the Hopper Claimants filed a proof of claim in the Falcon bankruptcy proceeding in the amount of $8.25 million, seeking payment from the Escrow Account (the "Hopper Claims").

15. Tide now brings this Adversary Complaint, requesting that the court subordinate the Hopper Claims pursuant to section 510(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

IV. CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT ONE: SUBORDINATION OF HOPPER CLAIMS PURSUANT TO § 510(b)

16. To the extent necessary or appropriate, the foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein.

17. Pursuant to section 510(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, "for the purposes of distribution...a claim...for damages arising from the purchase or sale of [a security of the debtor or of an affiliate of the debtor]...shall be subordinated to all claims or interests that are senior to or equal the claim or interest represented by such security, except that if such security is common stock, such claim has the same priority as common stock." 11 U.S.C. § 510(b).

18. The Hopper Claims are claims based on the Settlement Agreement entered into between the Hopper Claimants, Falcon, Arcapita and others. The Settlement Agreement arises directly from, and was intended to settle, the claims asserted by the Hopper Claimants in the Texas Lawsuits. The claims asserted by the Hopper Claimants in the Texas Lawsuits were claims for damages arising from the sale of the LLC membership interests of NorTex.

19. Additionally, the Settlement Agreement is itself an agreement for the purchase of a minority stake of Falcon's common stock, pursuant to which the Hopper Claimants now seek damages.

20. The Hopper Claims are subject to mandatory subordination under section 510(b).

21. The Hopper Claims are claims based on common stock.

22. The Hopper Claims should be subordinated to a level equal to the common stock of Falcon.

V. REQUESTED RELIEF

23. In accordance with the pleadings set forth herein, Tide requests the subordination of the Hopper Claims to a level equal to common stock pursuant to section 510(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

24. Tide reserves its rights to seek a substantial contribution claim for any fees and expenses incurred in this adversary proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

If the Second Payment occurs after December 31, 2010, and the amount of the Second Payment needs to be adjusted for the then existing tax rates, then Plaintiffs' counsel and Falcon shall provide the Escrow Agent revised distribution instructions that reflect the Second Payment to Plaintiffs minus all U.S. federal income and F.I.C.A. taxes.

7. No Assignment, Sale, or Other Transfer of Released Claims. The Releasing Parties each represent and warrant that he, she, or it has not assigned, sold, or otherwise transferred, or purported to assign, sell, or otherwise transfer, to any person, firm, corporation, association, or entity whatsoever any of the Released Claims, except that Plaintiffs have assigned a contingency fee interest in their claims to Ware, Jackson, Lee and Chambers, LLP and the Kim Law Firm, and except any claims that the Falcon Defendants may have transferred pursuant to the Purchase Agreement dated March 15, 2010 between Falcon, Alinda Natural Gas Storage I, L.P., and Alinda Natural Gas Storage II, L.P., if any. However, Plaintiffs agree to support each Courts' entry of an order of dismissal with prejudice in the form attached;

STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

- f. Plaintiffs shall transmit via email executed copies of the Motion to Expunge Lis Pendens attached to this Agreement as Exhibit F, and Plaintiffs shall file it with the appropriate Court immediately. STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL notices of lis pendens from the real estate records as soon as possible. Plaintiffs' obligations under this provision shall be satisfied upon the filing of the order or letters in Eastland and Jack Counties.

9. No Admission of Liability. The Releasing Parties understand and agree that this Agreement is a release of disputed claims, is intended to avoid the risks associated with litigating such disputed claims, and does not constitute an admission of liability by the Releasing Parties or any other Releasee as to any matter whatsoever, including, but not limited to, the claims alleged in the Lawsuits, which the Releasing Parties dispute, and that the Parties intend by this Agreement to avoid further litigation and to buy peace. The Releasing Parties further acknowledge and agree that this Agreement shall not preclude or collaterally estop any Releasing Party(ies) or any Releasee(s) from denying liability as to any claim not resolved by this Agreement, whether by third parties, those similarly situated to Plaintiffs but not a party hereto, or otherwise.

10. Confidentiality.

- a. Except as otherwise specifically provided in Paragraphs 10.b and 10.c below, each Party agrees and covenants that he, she, or it, subject to the penalty of contempt, has maintained and will continue to maintain the confidentiality of, and will not disclose, reveal, publish, disseminate, or discuss, directly or indirectly, to or with any other person or entity, other than his or her spouse, necessary employees, or legal representatives, the terms of this Agreement (including whether or not any amount was paid, the amount paid, or opinion(s) or information he or she may have with respect to this Agreement).

STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

- b. The Parties may disclose to any other person and/or entity that this matter has been settled on terms which are confidential.
- c. The following disclosures, which are specific exceptions to Paragraph 10.a above, are permitted in the following limited circumstances:
  - i. The Parties or their legal representatives may make such disclosures as are reasonably necessary for tax reporting purposes.
  - ii. The Parties or their legal representatives may disclose the terms and amount paid under this Agreement as reasonably necessary to obtain legal, tax, or accounting advice or services.

STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

iv. The Falcon Defendants or their legal representatives may disclose the terms and amount paid under this Agreement to the indirect owners of GSF and GSI II.

d. The Parties understand and agree that any disclosure that is not explicitly permitted herein of this Agreement or any of its terms by them, their spouses, their employees, or their legal representatives in any fashion shall constitute a material breach thereof. By signing this Agreement, each Party represents, acknowledges and agrees that he, she, or it has not agreed to reveal the terms of this Agreement to any party to whom disclosure is not explicitly permitted herein.

11. Nonassistance. Plaintiffs hereby covenant and agree not to voluntarily assist, support, or cooperate with, directly or indirectly, any person or entity alleging or pursuing any claim, administrative charge, or cause of action against any of the Falcon Defendants relating to the sale of NorTex by Falcon, the value of Falcon's or the MoBay Entities' shares, units, and/or options, or the Lawsuits, including without limitation by providing testimony or other information or documents, except under compulsion of law. If a Plaintiff is compelled to testify, nothing in this Agreement is intended to or shall prohibit him or her from providing complete and truthful testimony. Nor shall this Agreement in any way prevent Plaintiffs from cooperating with any investigation by any federal, state, or local governmental agency.

12. Non-Disparagement. The Parties hereby agree and covenant that, except as may be required by law, no Party will make any statement, written or verbal, in any forum or media, or take any action in disparagement of any Party, including but not limited to negative references to the Party, or their attorneys, corporate affiliates, products, services, corporate policies, officers or employees, or take any other action which may disparage the Party to the general public or its employees, customers, suppliers, or business partners or associates.

13. Severability. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is held to be unenforceable, each and all of the other provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.
14. Modification. No provision of this Agreement may be changed, altered, modified, or amended except in writing signed by the Parties directly affected by such change or a duly authorized representative of those affected Parties, which writing shall specifically reference this Agreement and the provision that the Parties intend to change, alter, modify, or amend.
15. Entire Agreement. The Parties acknowledge and agree that this Agreement and the exhibits attached to it constitute a full, final, and complete settlement of their differences relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes and replaces any and all other written or oral exchanges, agreements, understandings, arrangements, or negotiations between them relating to the subject matter hereof, and the Parties affirmatively state that there are no other prior or contemporaneous agreements, exchanges, representations, arrangements, or understandings, written or oral, between them relating to the subject matter hereof other than that as set forth herein and in the exhibits, and that this Agreement and the exhibits contain the sole and entire agreement between them with respect to the subject matter hereof.
16. Waiver. No claim or right arising out of a breach or default under this Agreement may be discharged by a waiver of that claim or right unless the waiver is in writing and signed by

STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

- the Party to be bound by such waiver. A waiver by any Party of a breach or default by another Party of any provision of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of future compliance therewith and this Agreement in its entirety shall remain in full force and effect.
17. Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced according to the laws of the State of Texas, without reference to any law that would require transfer to another state; however, the Parties expressly acknowledge that by entering this Agreement, no Party is agreeing to jurisdiction in Texas or the United States (other than as expressly agreed to in Paragraph 18) or otherwise waiving any jurisdictional defenses he, she, or it may have.
18. Disputes. The Parties agree that any dispute related to or arising out of this Agreement shall be submitted to binding arbitration pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association (the "AAA"). Any such arbitration shall be filed with the AAA in New York, and the final hearing shall be held in New York City. The Parties involved in the arbitration agree to choose a three arbitrator panel, and the Parties involved in the arbitration shall share equally in all filing fees and administrative costs of the arbitration; however, any award rendered may equitably reallocate those costs.
19. Headings and Captions. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience and reference only and shall in no way define, limit, expand, or otherwise affect the meaning or construction of any provisions of this Agreement.
20. Joint Drafting. The Parties and their respective counsel have reviewed and approved this Agreement and, accordingly, the normal rule of construction to the effect that any ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party will not be employed in any interpretation of this Agreement.

21. Counterparts Acceptable. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts (including execution by facsimile or via other electronic means), each of which shall be deemed to be an original for all purposes hereunder but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. A true and correct copy of this Agreement shall be as binding as the original.
22. Understanding. Each of the Parties represents and warrants that they have the authority to enter into this Agreement on behalf of themselves and any shareholders, partners, and/or principals, and the Parties each acknowledge and represent that they have been given a reasonable time to consider this Agreement, that they have had the opportunity to seek the assistance of an attorney in considering this Agreement, that they have read this Agreement in full, and that they understand and voluntarily consent and agree to each and every provision contained herein.
23. Good Faith Efforts. The Falcon Defendants shall make reasonable, good faith efforts to promptly secure the release of the Escrow Account.
24. Notices. For the purposes of this Agreement all notices shall be in writing and sent by certified mail as follows:

25. Taxes. Plaintiffs agree that, except for the amounts withheld and paid by Falcon pursuant to Paragraph 3, above, Plaintiffs are solely responsible for and will pay all federal income taxes and other applicable taxes, if any, which are required by law to be paid with respect to amounts received under this Agreement. Except for the amounts withheld and paid by Falcon pursuant to Paragraph 3, above, the Falcon Defendants are not obligated to pay such taxes.
