Legal Standards

9. As noted above, the Retention Orders provide that all compensation, reimbursement of expenses and indemnification payable to EY Bahrain would be subject to review only pursuant to the standards set forth in section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and shall not be subject to the standard of review set forth in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, provided that the U.S. Trustee shall retain all rights to respond or object to EY Bahrain's interim and final applications for compensation and reimbursement of expenses on all grounds, including, but not limited to, reasonableness pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code (including any allegations that EY Bahrain and another professional retained by the Debtors and compensated by the estates provided unnecessarily and unreasonably duplicative services); and provided further that in the event the U.S. Trustee objects, the Court retains the right to review the interim and final applications of EY Bahrain pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. Section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part:

“The trustee, or a committee appointed under section 1102 of this title, with the Court's approval, may employ or authorize the employment of a professional person under section 327 or 1103 of this title, as the case may be, on any reasonable terms and conditions of employment, including on a retainer, on an hourly basis, on a fixed or percentage fee basis, or on a contingent fee basis.”

11 U.S.C. § 328(a).

11. Section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code further provides that the Court may allow compensation different from the compensation provided under the previously-approved terms and conditions after the conclusion of such employment, only if such terms and conditions “prove to have been improvident in light of developments not capable of being anticipated at the time of the fixing of such terms and conditions.” 11 U.S.C. § 328(a). While the bankruptcy Court has discretion to alter fee agreements when the circumstances warrant, such alteration must be supported by evidence that the fee terms proved to have been improvident by reason of subsequent developments not capable of being anticipated at the time of the order fixing the compensation arrangement. See, e.g., In re Confections By Sandra, Inc., 83 B.R. 729 (9th Cir. B.A.P. 1987) (absent evidence of unanticipated developments, a bankruptcy Court abuses its discretion by altering a previously approved fee arrangement). Where the Court specifically approved a professional's employment and its compensation arrangement under section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and there is no evidence that unexpected or unforeseen circumstances have occurred that would cause the approval of the compensation arrangement to be improvident, the Court cannot conduct a section 330 reasonableness review of the fees requested.

12. The services that EY Bahrain has rendered for the Debtors during the Compensation Period require a high degree of professional competence, and EY Bahrain was required to expend substantial time and effort in providing those services. At all times during the Compensation Period, EY Bahrain performed efficiently, effectively and economically, and the results obtained to date have benefited the Debtors, their estates and creditors.

13. The request herein for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses are without prejudice to EY Bahrain's right to seek additional compensation for services performed and expenses incurred during the Compensation Period, including without limitation the updated fees described in Paragraph 6 of this Application.

WHEREFORE, EY Bahrain respectfully requests allowance of BD 54,000 (which is approximately $143,100) as compensation for the Compensation Period, and such other and further relief as is just and appropriate.
