IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
VICTORIA DIVISION

IN RE:	§
	§	CASE NO: 15-60070
HII TECHNOLOGIES, INC., et al.,	§	CHAPTER 11
	§	Jointly Administered
Debtor(s).	§	DAVID R. JONES

ORDER IN AID OF ADMINISTRATION OF THE CASE
(Docket No.)

During testimony provided at the Debtors' first day hearings, Ms. Cross testified that the Debtors have been locked out of several of their equipment yards. Each landlord of the Debtors shall permit access to these yards to Debtors and their representatives to inventory equipment and otherwise inspect the premises. If a landlord believes that the Debtors should not be able to remove their property from the leased premises, such landlord shall file a pleading with the Court within 14 days of receiving a copy of this order setting forth the specific legal reasons that the Debtors should not be able to remove their property. The failure to file the foregoing pleading shall be deemed a consent to the Debtor removal of their property.

Ms. Cross further testified that the Debtors' equipment is still in the possession of former employees and management. The continued retention of estate property is a violation of the automatic stay. All persons in possession of the Debtors' records (paper or electronic), equipment, computers, vehicles and other personal property shall immediately return such property to the Debtors' closest office.

SIGNED: September 22, 2015.
