Spencer Janssen v. Square, Inc. et al.,
Superior Court of California, County of San Francisco, No. CGC-16-549980

NOTICE OF FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

This notice is being posted pursuant to California Rule of Court 3.771(b) to announce that a settlement has been approved and judgment entered in the class action lawsuit filed in California state court by Plaintiff Janssen against Square, Inc. If you made one or more purchases for food delivered through Caviar's website (trycaviar.com) or mobile application between January 20, 2012 and August 31, 2015, and did not opt out of the settlement previously, you are a member of the class of this lawsuit and subject to the associated judgment.

Under the terms of the settlement, Square has provided you with a one-time use Consumer Credit in the amount of $15.30 to be used for payment for food in connection with a Caviar delivery order through trycaviar.com or the mobile application.

Your individualized Consumer Credit code is: Please see your unique email or postcard for your individualized Consumer Credit code.

The Consumer Credit is fully transferable, which means you can give it to anyone else to use. You may use the credit by entering the code in the "Promo Code" section of the checkout screen on Caviar. It will expire on June 25, 2019.

The settlement has been approved and judgment has been entered.
